

CONNECT Group Study Guide: Fellowship Of The Holy Spirit.

As always, it was such a great blessing to be able to share with you the Eternal Word and the significance of having fellowship with God the Holy Spirit, His great grace and love. In our world today there are multitudes that reject the biblical view point that all mankind are born sinners and are in desperate need to be reconciled with their Maker.

A door has been opened for us to have an unparalleled opportunity to be in fellowship with the Holy Spirit, that close friendship, camaraderie and companionship, which cannot be satisfied in any other relationships we may have in this life.

My prayer for you is that you start your own journey to really get to know His person, the wisdom, counsel, help and comfort He can afford us. He is our source of strength when we face strategic delays in our lives; remember the story of the ten virgins.

Happy Easter. For those travelling, May the Lord bless you as leave the City and upon your return. You remain in my thoughts and prayers always.

With blessings.

Shalom

Pastor Anthony Shadreck Chikomba

1. 2 Corinthians 13:14, 1 John 1:3, 1 Corinthians 1:9, John 16:7-13 Matthew 10:19-20

' May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Love of God, the fellowship of the Holy Spirit' is a widely shared benediction in the Church of Jesus Christ. Share what comes of your mind each time you declare the words. Do they have any purchase on your life at all?

2. Job 26:13, Job 33:3-4, 2 Corinthians 3:18, Zechariah 4:6-7, Numbers 11:25-29

Fellowship of the Holy Spirit involves sharing our lives with Him; yielding to His influence and direction on a daily basis. Is this attainable and how?

3. Acts 1:22-24 Acts 13:2-3, Acts 15:25-28, Joel 2:28-29, 2 Corinthians 3:2-3, Romans 8:26-27

We are better off when we ask the Holy Spirit for His help when making decisions, pursuing visions and dreams. How easy is it for us to confer with the Spirit of the living God in matters of a personal nature?

4. Romans 8:13-14, Gal 5:16-17, Gal 6:8, Judges 16:20, Deuteronomy 30:10-16

Mortifying the deeds of the flesh is a challenge faced by all believers. Paul states his view point clearly in his epistles; if we walk in the Spirit, we will not fulfil the lust of the flesh. In your experience do you find it easy to live the expectation of this scripture at all? Share experiences of how fellowship with the Holy Spirit has made a difference in your walk with God.
