

CONNECT Group Study Guide: Impossible Is Nothing.

If we really understood the power available to us as Christians to help us succeed, we would literally be astounded.

It is surprising how few of us include and invite the Holy Spirit into our everyday lives. We don't include him in our studies, our jobs, our relationships or in our financial dealings. We only run to Him when things become impossible, all the while He waits for the green light of prayer to invade our everyday lives with power, insight and divine support.

If we will believe that the Lord desires for all His children to succeed and has made more than adequate provision for that to happen, then impossible will be nothing as far as a Christian is concerned.

I encourage you to invite the Lord into every area of your life, no matter how trivial it may seem and you will be surprised to see how willing He is to help.
