

Connect Group Study Guide: The ABCs of Relationships

Relationships govern every aspect of human life. A breakdown in healthy relationships can tear apart families and even cause nations to be at war. Divorce, conflict, murder, genocide, terrorism and even world wars can be traced back to a breakdown of relationships.

It is God who made us relational beings and only He can provide the ability to build meaningful relationships. For our lives to be productive and biblical, a proper understanding of love and relationships must be gained.

Everywhere you look in society there is a break down in relationships. We need to ask God who gives wisdom liberally without partiality to enable us to love and be loved just as He intended it to be.

With God's help we can make building healthy relationships as simple as ABC and as easy as 123.
