

CONNECT GROUP STUDY GUIDE

Making a contribution

Indeed it was such a great blessing to be able to share with you the living and eternal word of God this last Sunday. Thank you so much for the attention you paid to the reading and sharing of the Word.

After service what encouraged me the most was the conversations I had with a few of the brethren, especially two of them who were attending our church for the very first time and they said “we have been blessed and feel can also ‘make a contribution’.

Thank you so much all of who are already involved in teams. In the next few weeks I will ask that each of us give consideration and thought on where you think you could make a contribution, and speak to your Connect Leaders and the Pastors.

A big God bless you and have a great week in Jesus name. Shalom.

Making a contribution in serving and doing so willingly is the will of God for us. Share your understanding of what it means to serve in the context of the calling upon the Church and can we do better.
2. Malachi 3:13-16; Job 21:7-15; Numbers 11:11-15; Psalms 73:12-17:2; Corinthians 12:14-15
If you have been involved in any meaningful form of serving, most likely you should have felt at some point that the best thing is to quit. Share your experiences on what has helped you to keep going.
3. Hebrews 12:28; 1 Peter 4:11; Matthew 7:22-23; Malachi 1:6-8; 1 Corinthians 15:10, 2 Timothy 4:6-8
Serving with consistence, reverence, quality and over the long-term is what pleases God the most. Can these ideals be achieved?
